32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time (A)

Readings: p.91 Response:

For you my soul is thirsting, O God, my God.

Jesus warns us that there are consequences for being unprepared. There are certain things you cannot obtain at the last moment. For example, students cannot prepare for their exams when the day of testing is already upon them. A person cannot get the right kind of character, strength, and skill required for a task at hand unless they already possess it, such as a captain with courage and nautical skills who must steer a ship through a dangerous storm at sea. When the Lord Jesus comes to lead you to his heavenly banquet will you be ready to hear his voice and follow? Our eternal welfare depends on our hearing, and many have trained themselves to not hear. We will not be prepared to meet the Lord, face to face, when he calls us on the Day of Judgment, unless we listen to him today. The Lord invites us to feast at his heavenly banquet table. Are you ready? "Lord Jesus, make me vigilant and attentive to your voice that I may heed your call at all times. May I find joy in your presence and delight in doing your will."

Mary's Meals have visited Ethiopia and have a group of volunteers in one school, ready to cook the daily meal just as soon as they have enough money to feed the children. This will be the first school in Ethiopia to receive Mary's Meals. Hopefully soon, these children will join the 1,230,171 in 14 other countries already receiving a nutritious daily meal in their place of education. Next weekend we will be running a fundraiser after every Mass.
