33rd Sunday of Ordinary Time (C)

Pg.97 R Psalm: The Lord comes to rule the peoples with fairness.

What will attract others to the truth and power of the Gospel? When they see Christians loving their enemies, being joyful in suffering, patient in adversity, pardoning injuries, and showing comfort and compassion to the hopeless and the helpless. Jesus tells us that we do not need to fear our adversaries. God will give us sufficient grace, strength, and wisdom to face any trial and to answer any challenge to our faith. Are you ready to lay down your life for Christ and to bear witness to the joy and freedom of the Gospel?

"Lord Jesus Christ, by your atoning death on the cross you have redeemed the world. Fill me with joyful hope, courage, and boldness to witness the truth of your love for sinners and your victory over the powers of sin, Satan, and death."

Please pray for our Sick: Christina Carter, Mary Jackson, Baby Edward, Frances Duggan, Martha Buckley Christopher Bone, Michael Moffat, Henry Moffat, J. World Day of the Poor, Sunday 17th November. “How many times do we see poor people rummaging through bins to retrieve what others have discarded as superfluous, in the hope of finding something to live on or to wear! They themselves become part of a human bin; they are treated as refuse.” With strong words, Pope Francis encourages all of us to consider the poorest and most vulnerable, and you will find the full text of his message on www.vatican.va. Our Diocese has a website full of charitable action projects that all need volunteers – have a look at www.caritasbrentwood.org.

All Souls. In November we remember those who have passed away by Praying and offering Masses for them. Please write the names of those you wish to be included in our special prayer list in November and for whom Masses will be offered. All Souls Remembrance envelopes are now in the porch.
