Remembrance Sunday 12th of November 2023

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time - p.91

1st Reading: Wisdom 6:12-16

R. Psalm: For you my soul is thirsting, O God, my God.

2nd Reading: 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, Gospel: Matthew 25:1-13

Are you missing out on what's most important in life? Being unprepared can lead to unnecessary trouble and even disaster! What good is a life-jacket left on the shore when the boat is sinking? Jesus' story of ten single ladies waiting for a wedding procession in the middle of the night seems strange to most westerners today. But Jesus' audience knew all too well how easily this could happen to them. Jesus warns us that there are consequences for being unprepared. There are certain things you cannot obtain at the last moment.

Lord Jesus, make me vigilant and attentive to your voice that I may heed your call at all times. May I find joy in your presence and delight in doing your will.

Join us for a Wonderful Christmas Get Together on December 2nd, from 5 pm onwards in our youth hall! Enjoy a world of flavours with dishes from Nigeria, Poland, India, and more available on the day. We’re seeking donations and volunteers for our Christmas stalls – toys, books, tech items, and more are welcome. National Youth Sunday (26th November) is now World Youth Day and it is a unique opportunity to celebrate the role and significance of young people in the Catholic Church in England and Wales, along with the global Church.

We have asked young people around the Diocese to speak in their parishes, to share their experiences of BCYS events, how other young people can get involved and how others can support us.

It is our hope that you will also support us in taking a second collection on this weekend. Any money raised on will go towards supporting those in need of financial support to go on pilgrimages and to events, as well as allowing us to run our events in an affordable way for all, continue to provide support and training to those working with young people and so much more.

Please do continue to pray for the work of the Brentwood Catholic Youth Service and Walsingham House.
